

The image shows the interior of a Gothic abbey, likely the Abbaye de Silvacane. The architecture features high, pointed arches and ribbed vaulting. The walls are made of light-colored stone blocks. On the left, there are tall, narrow windows with tracery. The floor is made of large, light-colored stone tiles. The overall atmosphere is one of historical grandeur and architectural precision.

isa barbier

«autour de la lumière»

ABBAYE DE SILVACANE
la Roque d'Anthéron

21 mars 20 mai 2015
mars 10h-13h / 14h-17h
avril mai 10h-13h / 14h-17h30

fermé le lundi